DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. A broad range or limitation together with a narrow range or limitation that falls within the broad range or limitation (in the same claim) is considered indefinite, since the resulting claim does not clearly set forth the metes and bounds of the patent protection desired. See MPEP § 2173.05(c). Note the explanation given by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences in Ex parte Wu, 10 USPQ2d 2031, 2033 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1989), as to where broad language is followed by "such as" and then narrow language. The Board stated that this can render a claim indefinite by raising a question or doubt as to whether the feature introduced by such language is (a) merely exemplary of the remainder of the claim, and therefore not required, or (b) a required feature of the claims. Note also, for example, the decisions of Ex parte Steigewald, 131 USPQ 74 (Bd. App. 1961); Ex parte Hall, 83 USPQ 38 (Bd. App. 1948); and Ex parte Hasche, 86 USPQ 481 (Bd. App. 1949). In the present instance, claim 2 recites the broad recitation "the arrangement of the aperture of the suction line relative to the exit aperture can be modified". Claim 2 does not further limit Claim 1. Clarification is needed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-5 and 8-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Sutton (US 6737022).

Sutton teaches a system for extracting liquid droplets into a container. The system comprises a suction line (250) arranged laterally alongside an exit aperture (244) for aspiration of a droplet (246) exiting from the exit aperture (244). The system further comprises a housing (240) having an outlet aperture (244) for substances exiting from the exit aperture (244) and having a passage aperture (252) for the suction line (250) is arranged around the exit aperture (244). (See Figure 12) The suction line (250) further runs in a collecting vessel/sample vial. With respect to claim 8, applicants recite "in that a protective-gas atmosphere which displaces atmospheric moisture and maintained in the region of the exit aperture", this limitation is a method limitation and is of no patentable significance in apparatus claims. Sutton teaches the claimed structure and therefore is capable of performing the above limitation.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

7. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

8. Claims 6 and 7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sutton.

Refer above for the teachings of Sutton.

Sutton fails to explicitly teach an electric heating device or heat coupling in the region of the exit aperture. However, Sutton does teach in a different embodiment for heating the liquid passing through the system to a desired temperature. (See Col. 6, Lines 33-37)

It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to provide an electric heating device or heat coupling in the region of the exit aperture to achieve the predictable results of obtaining the desired temperature conditions for mixing and proper chemical analysis.
